SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 1.

Two Girls Struck by Lightning—While the heavy thunder-shower which passed over Westchester county, N. Y., on Tuesday afternoon was at its height two little girls named Annie and Sarah Ballance, daughters of William Ballance, of Irvington on the Hudson, went out of the house to fix smashing at the lead roof in order to catch all the water possible. While Annie had her hands on the tin there was a terrible crash of thunder, accompanied by sharp lightning, and the two girls were prostrated. Annie was found to be dead, and Sarah a mortal, laid by the shock, the will cover. Annie was 15 years of age and Sarah 10. During the same shower the conductor's carriage at J. S. Cressel's residence, in the same village, was struck by lightning, but no one was injured.

SETTING A BLOODHOUND ON HIS WIFE—Frederick Wagner, a bar-room keeper in New York, quarreled with his wife Tuesday night. He turned down the gaslights in the room, and, unloosing a fierce and powerful bloodhound, he set the brute on the unfortunate woman. The dog seized her by the neck and arms, lacerating and tearing the flesh badly. Her cries of distress reached the ears of some boys on the streets, and they informed a policeman who entered the room and secured the tortured animal. Wagner was taken into custody, and the dog was confined in a back room, and quieted.
